

CALCULATING YOUR NEXT MOVE? BECOME A CDC CONTRACTING PROFESSIONAL

Contracting professionals play a vital role in advancing the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's (CDC) public health mission. In fiscal year 2022, CDC's Office of Acquisition Services (OAS) within the Office of Financial Resources (OFR) processed 9,228 contract actions, which totaled $10.3 billion supporting public health programs and research around the world.

As a member of our talented and diverse workforce, you will make a difference. Contracting professionals advise CDC officials and provide acquisition leadership. Being a contracting professional is more than a job; it's a rewarding career with a direct impact on public health.

In OFR, we are passionate about what we do because we understand that each budget dollar is far more than a number. It is lives saved, illness and injury prevented, hope and healing restored.

As a Contracting Professional, You Will...

LEARN.

Entry level contracting professionals (GS-1102-07, 09, 11, and 12) learn the fundamentals of contracting for an expansive acquisition career.

GROW.

Journeyman contracting professionals (GS-1102-13) grow into warranted contracting officers executing multi-million dollar contracts supporting public health.

LEAD.

Lead contracting professionals (GS-1102-14 and 15) support OAS and CDC as section leaders, branch chiefs, and other leadership positions supporting OAS' Office of the Director.

READY TO JOIN US?

Search <https://go.usa.gov/xtTZ6> using keywords contract specialist (1102).

U.S. Department of Health and Human Services
Centers for Disease
Control and Prevention